10 STEPS YOU CAN TAKE TODAY

Want to step up your marketing game?

Here are 10 steps that can move you closer to your goals – today.

- Improve my network by investing in events and conferences. Spend time reaching out and getting to know the speakers and audience while I'm there.
- Divide the content I am offering into two categories: Free and Paid. To protect my intellectual property from copyright infringement, create strategies and systems through opt-ins and paid memberships.
- Bundle my services in different packages with different price points to make them accessible to both the small business owner and the larger companies.
- Continue to improve my skills and knowledge by following experts in the field of marketing. A good place to start would be www.stephanspencer.com/resources
- Stay away from black hat SEO. Focus on building high quality links and providing high value content to my readers to earn trust and rankings.
- Understand that SEO is a constantly updating industry - it will exist as long as Google is around and people are searching for answers.
- Find out what my strengths are by taking personality diagnostic tests such as StrengthsFinder 2.0, The Fascinate Test and DISC.
- Stay on top of my health and prioritize my well-being above anything else. I can't be 100% committed to work if I am tired, sick or sleep-deprived.
- Focus on the important things. Follow Warren Buffett's advice: List 25 very important projects where I'm not allowed to do the other twenty unless I finish doing the first five on my list.
- Hire and hand-pick an amazing team that can help me achieve my goals. Understand that my efforts alone aren't enough to get me where I want to be.
